

John Brown is an established part of the ceilidh scene in the north of England, and has become a large part of the Sheffield ceilidh tradition. His calling style could best be described as fun, blending interesting dances not often seen with old favourites delivered with a degree of humour that puts the dancers at ease and helps everyone have fun. He can be found calling regularly at most the ceilidh series in the north, and festivals up and down the country. He's been very involved with the student folk scene calling for Sheffield Ceilidh Soc and plenty of behind the scenes work for IVFDF (the student folk festival).

Nice things people have said...

"Brilliant first night of the season last night with Derwenna and John Brown calling plus a great audience. If you get a chance to dance to Derwenna - do it! They were fabulous - so much energy, great tunes, great playing and John matched the tunes with great dances."

Pete Coe

"Absolutely fabulous. We definitely want you back again next season. Superb!"
